Business Impact NW Announces Departure of Chief Operating Officer, Danielle Moser

Seattle, WA, 2024 – Business Impact NW announces the departure of Danielle Moser, Managing Director, and Chief Operating Officer. Ms. Moser has made the decision to step away from her current role to dedicate more time to her business Imperia Lake Union, an award-winning event venue in Eastlake, Seattle.

Danielle Moser joined Business Impact NW in December 2016, initially contributing to the Development and Communications department. Her responsibilities included fundraising, brand management and marketing. In 2019 she stepped into the role of Managing Director and COO, overseeing, and ensuring the proper operations of the organization.

"Danielle has been a driving force behind the success and growth of our organization, and we are grateful for her dedicated service and leadership," said Joe Sky-Tucker, CEO at Business Impact NW. "We are a better community resource because of her dedicated work, and we wish her the very best in her future endeavors."

Ms. Moser's last day with Business Impact NW will be January 25, 2024. The organization has a robust Operations department that will ensure a smooth continuation of the operations during this transitional period. For any inquiries or further information, please contact Joe Sky-Tucker at joes@businessimpactnw.org
